January 2015

Happy New Year!
We hope you all had a wonderful holiday season filled with love and happiness. January snuck up on us!

We are looking forward to a month full of exciting learning experiences. We will talk about penguins, the author Jan Brett, Martin Luther King and doctors/germs.

We also would like to welcome Nicholas from the Toddler 2 room to our classroom this month!

We hope you all have a great start to the new year!

Important Dates to Remember

Pizza Days will be the 9th, 15th, 23rd and 29th

Miss Sue will be visiting on the 7th and the 22nd

The center will be open January 19th, Martin Luther King Day

Happy Birthday to you !

Zavier 1/16

Nicholas 18th

PARENT REMINDERS

Please remember your child needs a hat and mittens everyday and snow pants and boots when there is snow on the ground. Please make sure everything is labeled. THANK YOU!

One of the most important things you can do as a parent is to read to your child. The time you spend reading to your child can influence his or her attitude toward books and affect the success he or she will have when learning to read.

See you at school!
