The center will be closed on Monday January 2nd for New Year's Day.

Our themes for November are: Winter Clothes, Winter Animals, Snow, Snowmen, and groundhogs day.

It's Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday on January 16th. We will be open but please let us know if your child will not be attending that day.

A few reminders: Please label everything belonging to your child. We have duplicate cups. Also, the children like to put their own items away and they sometimes end up in the wrong cubby. Please sign your child in and out of the sign-in book located on the Toddler 2 cubbies. Also, please check your child's folder. Their artwork and important information is placed in there. We try to send everything home at the end of the week but this does not always happen.

Did you know: We have a resource library in the hallway. There is information and books on assorted subjects about children from birth to school-age. You are welcome to browse the shelves and borrow what you need. There is a sign-out book to list what you took. Just sign the items back in when you are finished. Please try to return them within two to three weeks.

With the cold weather quickly approaching, what could be better than snuggling with your child? A book activity kit to do together! We have a great assortment of them in canvas bags, across from the Toddler classroom. As with the resource library, borrow what you and your child would like and return in a timely manner.

We look forward to a safe, happy and fun new year.

Sung to the theme I'm a little teapot.

I'm a little snowman short and fat.
Here's my scarf and here's my hat.
When the snow is falling come and play.
Build a snowman every day.
