Thanksgiving

We want to thank all the parents who participated and also to those of you who provided food for our classroom Halloween party. We had a great, fun filled time and enjoyed seeing all of the costumes.

We have experienced our first snow fall! With this in mind, you should know that we love to go out and play in the snow and we will often! So, should you see snow on the ground please send your child in with appropriate attire (boots, extra socks, snow pants, gloves, and hats).

Important dates for November:

Wednesday, November 2nd - There will be a free educational parent workshop here at ORCCC. The workshop will provide information on temperament behavior in young children. This is a great opportunity to take advantage of.

Pizza Days
Friday the 4th, Thursday the 10th, and Friday the 18th

Miss Sue

24th and 25th - Happy Thanksgiving!

Have you met Oreo?

Oreo is our classroom stuffed animal. Each child will get a turn to bring him home, spend time with him and document their experience with Oreo in the notebook. Feel free to add photos or encourage your child to draw pictures of their experience.

Songs

I'm an acorn, small and round
(Pretend to hold an acorn in your fingers.)

Lying on the cold, cold ground.
(Cross your arms on your chest and shiver)

People always step on me.
(Touch your foot to the ground on "step.")

That is why I'm cracked, you see.
Make a fist and tap your head on "cracked."

I'm a nut.
(Rap your head again.)

I'm a nut. I'm a nut. I'm a nut.
(Rap your head again.)

Thank You,
Miss Ashley and Miss Amanda
